

Who We Are

About Us

We are 20+ Members of Practicing Male Catholics in the Drogheda & surrounding areas, part of the National Organisation of approx 1,500 men.

A Taste of What We Do

In the Drogheda Council Ck32, on Good Friday we organise 'The Way of the Cross' where the Cross is carried around the town to Christian Churches by those attending the procession.

We distribute 1,000 First Holy Communion booklets & workbooks to around 40 schools, free each year promoting the faith.

We have a festival of prayer, where we bring the Relic of St. Oliver Plunkett to about 90 locations, in May/June each year.

We organise the St. Oliver Plunkett Procession on the first sunday in July each year.

More Information

The Order of the Knights of Saint Columbanus (Irish: Ridirí Naomh Cholumba) is an Irish national Catholic fraternal organisation.

Founded by Canon James K. O'Neill in Belfast, Ireland, in 1915, it was named in honour of the Irish Saint, Columbanus.

Initially established as a mutual benefit society for working class Catholics, it has developed into a fraternal benefit society dedicated to providing charitable services to all areas of the Irish community.

Our Objectives for the Years Ahead

1. To Strengthen Spiritual Renewal

We pledge to deepen our lives of prayer and sacramental commitment, ensuring that each Knight and Companion of the Order is equipped to be a true witness of Christ in family, parish, and community life.

2. To Uphold Charity and Service

We will expand our works of mercy, with particular attention to the poor, the marginalized, and those who feel forgotten. Guided by Columbanus's spirit of generosity, we seek to be instruments of compassion in both word and deed.

3. To Support the Church's Mission

Our Order will stand firmly alongside the bishops, priests, and religious, offering loyal service and lay leadership to strengthen the life of the Church. We will form initiatives to nurture vocations, encourage youth, and promote Christian family life.

4. To Promote Christian Unity

Following St. Columbanus, who forged bonds across borders and cultures, we dedicate ourselves to fostering reconciliation, dialogue, and cooperation among all who profess Christ's name.

5. To Be Stewards of Our Heritage

We will preserve the spiritual and cultural legacy entrusted to us, ensuring that the name of St. Columbanus continues to inspire new generations to holiness and service.

We Also...

Have Church Gate collections in Drogheda, East Meath & Mid Louth to fund our projects, we give donations to local charities.

At Christmastime we deliver non perishable foods & ready made meals to Charitable Groups within the wider area of Drogheda.

We assist local parishes in promoting the faith, & helping the less well off in our society.
